

PRAGUE TOUR

PRAGUE HIDDEN VINEYARDS

PRIVATE WINE TOURS
IN THE HEART OF THE EUROPE

Discover Prague from a completely different perspective – far from the crowds, in two unexpected green oases with breathtaking views of the city. This unique tour reveals the capital's centuries-old winemaking tradition, shaped by King Charles IV in the 14th century, and hidden today in places most visitors never find.

From the elegant Grebovka Park, inspired by Italian Renaissance gardens, to the historic St. Claire's Vineyard inside the Botanical Garden of Prague, overlooking the Vltava River and the city's skyline, you'll explore remarkable vineyards, learn captivating stories, and taste local wines rooted in royal heritage. A perfect experience for wine lovers and curious travelers alike.
